

The Herald-Sun today announced the results of the 2007 Reader's Choice Awards and Chamas was voted the Number One Steakhouse.

"To be recognized as the Best Steakhouse is a great accomplishment and honor, and we could not have done without our loyal customers. The Chamas Team is grateful for this recognition and are committed to continue provide the best food quality and service. Thank you all for the support."

The Reader's Choice Awards are determined annually by the readers of the Herald-Sun and The Chapel Hill Herald via the U.S. Postal Service and www.herald-sun.com. Thousands of votes (doubling last year's count) were cast in more than 100 separate categories.
